(Department of Food)

New Delhi, the 16th October 1965

G.S.R. 1547.—The following draft of rules further to amend the Rice-Milling Industry (Regulation and Licensing) Rules, 1959, which the Central Government proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by section 22 of the Rice-Milling Industry (Regulation) Act, 1958 (21 of 1958), is hereby published as required by sub-section (1) of the said section for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby; and notice is hereby given that the draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 15th day of November, 1965.

Any objections or suggestions which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the aforesaid date will be taken into consideration by the Central Government.

Draft Rules

1. These rules may be called the Rice-Milling Industry (Regulation and Licensing) Fourth Amendment Rules, 1965.

2. In the Rice-Milling Industry (Regulation and Licensing) Rules, 1959—

(a) after rule 5, the following rule shall be inserted, namely:—

“5A. Amendment of Licence.—The licensing officer may vary or amend a licence under the following circumstances, namely:—

(a) When the description of the machinery of the rice mill, given in paragraph 1 of Form IV, needs alteration consequent on the replacement of any machinery;

(b) When a change in the name of a licensee, not being a change in the ownership of the rice mill, occurs;

(c) When a change of the location of the whole or any part of the rice mill, such as is permitted under clause (c) of sub-section (3) of section 8 of the Act, is made;

(d) When an expansion of the rice mill, such as is permitted under clause (d) of sub-section (3) of section 8 of the Act, is effected.”.

(b) in Form IV, in paragraph 3, after sub-paragraph (3A), the following sub-paragraph shall be inserted, namely:—

“(3B) If the licensee wishes to replace the whole or any part of the machinery of the rice mill specified in paragraph 1 of the licence, he may do so without prior permission of the licensing officer provided that such replacement does not result in an increase in the productive capacity of the rice mill. The licensee shall, however, intimate all such replacements to the licensing officer within one month of such replacements. Where any alteration is necessary in the description of the machinery in the licence as a result of such replacement, the licensee shall forward to the licensing officer the licence along with such intimation.”.

MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY & SUPPLY

(Department of Supply & Technical Development)

New Delhi, the 8th October 1965

G.S.R. 1549.—In pursuance of rule 11 of the Indian Inspection Service (Class I) Rules, 1961, the Central Government, after consultation with the Union Public Service Commission, hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Indian Inspection Service (Class I—Recruitment by a Competitive Examination) Rules, 1963, namely:—

1. These rules may be called the Indian Inspection Service (Class I—Recruitment by a Competitive Examination) Amendment Rules, 1965.

2. In the Indian Inspection Service (Class I—Recruitment by a Competitive Examination) Rules, 1963 in rule 4—

(1) for condition (ii), the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“(ii) Age limit—

(a) A candidate must have attained the age of 20 years and must not have attained the age of 25 years on the first day of August of the year in which the examination is held;

(b) The upper age limit mentioned in clause (a) will be relaxable upto 30 years in the case of—

(i) a candidate who holds substantively a permanent post in the Directorate General of Supplies and Disposals; this relaxation will not be admissible to a probationer appointed against a permanent post in the Department, during the period of his probation;

(ii) a candidate who has been continuously in temporary service in the Directorate General of Supplies and Disposals for at least three years:

Provided that no candidate shall be permitted, under the relaxation of the upper age limit mentioned in this clause, to complete more than three times at the examination.

(c) The upper age limit relaxable under clause (b) will be further relaxable—

(i) upto a maximum of five years, if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe;

(ii) up to a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a bona fide displaced person from East Pakistan and has migrated to India on or after January 1, 1964;

(iii) up to a maximum of eight years, if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe and is also a bona fide displaced person from East Pakistan and has migrated to India on or after the 1st January, 1964;

(iv) up to a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a resident of the Union Territory of Pondicherry and has received education through the medium of French at one stage or other;

(v) up to a maximum of four years, if a candidate belongs to the Andaman and Nicobar Islands;

- (vi) up to a maximum of three years, if a candidate is an Indian citizen and is a repatriate from Ceylon;
- (vii) up to a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a resident of the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu; and
- (viii) up to a maximum of three years, if a candidate is of Indian origin and has migrated from Kenya, Uganda or the United Republic of Tanzania (formerly Tanganyika and Zanzibar).

NOTE 1.—If the examination referred to above is a combined examination for the purpose of making appointments to more than one Service or post, a candidate shall be deemed to have competed at the examination for all the Services or posts ordinarily covered by the examination, if he competes for any one or more of the Services or posts.

NOTE 2.—A candidate shall be deemed to have competed at the examination if he actually appears in any one or more subjects.

NOTE 3.—The candidature of a person who is admitted to the examination under the age concession mentioned in clause (b) is liable to be cancelled, if after submitting his application for the examination he resigns from the Service or his services are terminated by his department, either before or after taking the examination. He will, however, continue to be eligible to compete for the examination if he is retrenched from the Service or post after submitting his application for the examination.

NOTE 4.—A candidate who, after submitting his application to the Directorate General of Supplies and Disposals, is transferred to another department or office, will be eligible to compete under the age concession mentioned in clause (b) for appointment to the Service, for which he would have been eligible but for his transfer, provided that his application is forwarded by the Directorate General of Supplies and Disposals.

NOTE 5.—A candidate already in Government service, whether in a permanent or a temporary capacity, shall obtain prior permission of the Head of the Department to compete for the examination.

- (d) Save as provided in clauses (b) and (c), the age limits prescribed in clause (a) shall in no case be relaxed."

(2) In clause (b) of condition (iii), the words, letters and brackets "excepting the B.E. degree (Telecommunication) awarded by Indian Universities" shall be omitted.
